Key Corridor Conclusions at Close of WIRED

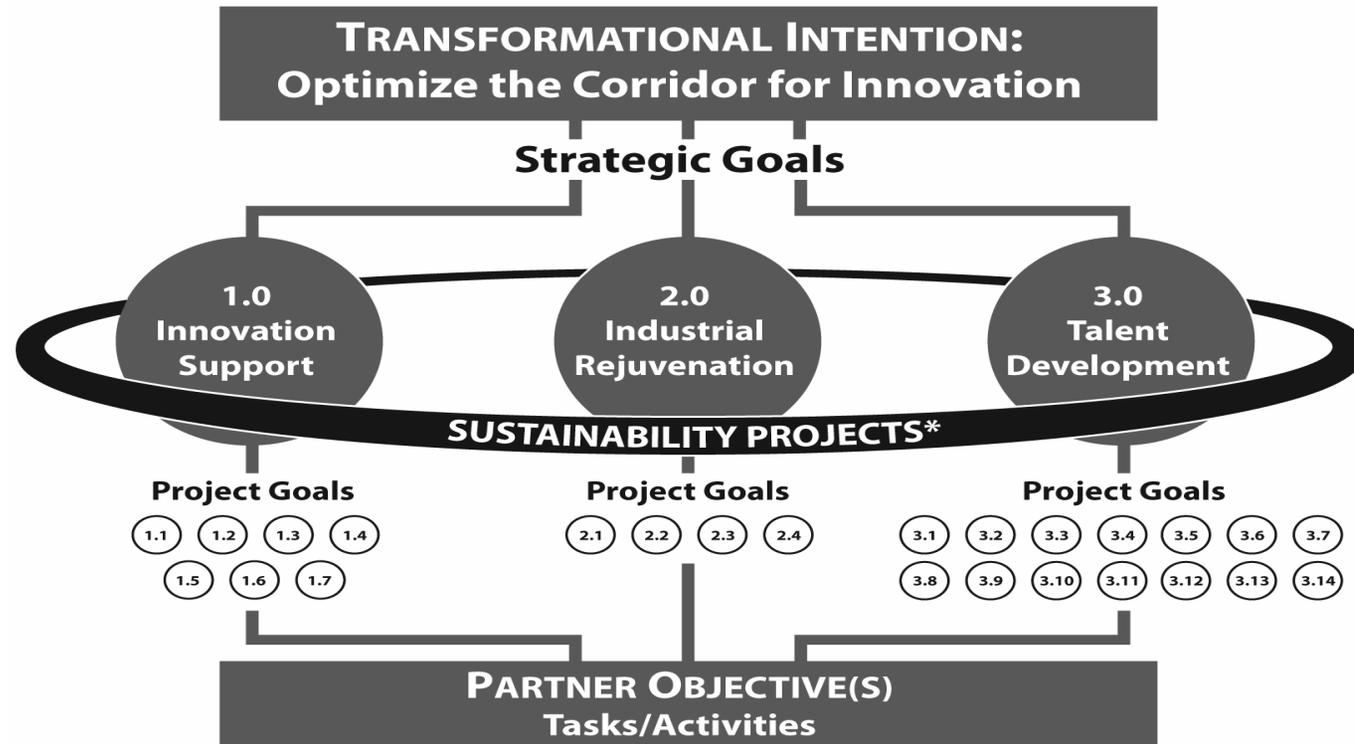

What conclusions is your project reaching about “Optimizing the Corridor for Innovation and 21st Century Workforce Development”?

1. Our focus extends far beyond the Corridor, to the Statewide workforce development system; we can't promote change in the workforce system if the transformation agenda is region-specific.
2. The workforce system's role for promoting innovation in business is tied to our ability to move the workforce system toward greater attention to skills assessment and enhancement, in demand driven models of service.
